WENTWORTH'S PURPOSE

It is the purpose of Wentworth Military Academy to provide the best conditions possible for the all 'round development of worthy boys and young men.

To attain this high purpose, the Academy places greatest emphasis upon these four points:

First, it is the Academy’s aim to assemble only the highest types of students—deserving youths of good parentage—to assure wholesome associations and greater progress. Every precaution is taken to keep undesirable boys—all those that might prove detrimental to others—out of the Academy.

Second, to employ only men of highest character and ability for its faculty. It is not enough for a Wentworth faculty member to be merely a scholar and a splendid instructor. He must also possess a spirit of friendliness and a sincere desire to give kindly help whenever necessary. He must thoroughly understand the innermost problems of boys—be patient with them—and be ready to serve each boy to the best of his ability.

Third, to provide the very best equipment throughout every department to the end that every boy will have all those things necessary to his health and happiness and that none shall want for anything that will help him to make progress.

Fourth, to provide a program for each day that will best serve the interests of every student.

One of the chief reasons why Wentworth has been able to achieve its lofty purpose lies in the fact that the Academy has been under one continuous administration since its founding. For nearly three-score years, Colonel Sanford Sellers was president of Wentworth. He enjoyed one of the most enviable records in the history of American education.

The Academy was founded by Stephen G. Wentworth, scion of a distinguished English family and a prominent Lexington banker, in 1880, as a memorial to his deceased son, William Wentworth. Mr. Wentworth immediately vested control of the institution in the hands of a board of trustees composed of a duly elected representative of each of the Evangelical churches of Lexington, and a president. Colonel Sellers was called to the new school in its first year and remained as its active head until 1938. Mr. Wentworth served as president of the Board from 1880 until his death in 1897.

It was the firm conviction of the founder, his board of trustees and President Sellers that a military boarding school provides the most effective possible means for giving young men the thorough mental, moral and physical training necessary to develop in them the highest traits of manhood. Thus, Wentworth became the first military school in the Missouri River Valley.

From the beginning the late President Sellers surrounded himself with the ablest faculty available — strong men of proved qualities and Christian character. Under his wise and forward-looking direction, Wentworth has grown steadily. Each year has shown marked improvement over the preceding year. Today Wentworth stands as one of the truly great educational institutions of our country — second to none in the opportunities it offers boys and young men for thorough preparation for professional studies, business and for life.
AN HISTORIC BACKGROUND

Throughout over half a century the Wentworth purpose has remained unchanged. The ideals which led to the Academy's founding and which have carried it steadily forward, shine just as brightly today as ever: the desire to give each youth every opportunity to develop fully his own individual personality; the aim that every cadet shall acquire a keen sense of duty and responsibility, both to himself and toward others; that he shall have the mental and moral power to make accurate judgment between right and wrong and the physical power to stand by his convictions.

These high standards have dominated Wentworth for generations. But to maintain them and assure their full and continuous application, it has been found necessary to limit the enrollment. Wentworth today is a relatively small school—many times larger than in 1880, to be sure, yet small enough that every individual student is given the private attention so essential to his all-round development.

The surrounding country affords a wealth of historically important Civil War sites and the town of Lexington itself retains much of the tradition of the old south. Here enthusiasm for the reminders of our country's glorious past is combined with the enthusiasm for modern adventure to promote the rapid development of the boy's mental, moral and physical resources.

YESTERDAY

and TODAY

The Wentworth Military Academy of today is vastly different from the Wentworth of 1880. From year to year it has enlarged its facilities, increased its enrollment and changed its physical appearance until there is little to remind one of the early days. Numerous modern and attractive buildings have been erected as they were needed. Old buildings have been torn away when they were no longer useful. Spacious military and athletic fields have been added. One of the finest Field Houses in the country has been built. Every new method in teaching that has been found definitely superior to older methods has been adopted. Yet, some of the fundamental principles that guided the first company are adhered to just as strictly today.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

MILITARY training at Wentworth has been a strong feature since 1895 when the first active army officer was detailed to the Academy but has never been permitted to interfere with scholastic work.

Today the Reserve Officer Training Corps program (ROTC) at Wentworth is administered by Regular Army personnel, consisting of three commissioned officers and six non-commissioned officers, who are in charge of instruction.

Cadets are taught the theoretical aspects of the basic military subjects through formal classroom type instruction. Each Wednesday afternoon during the regular drill period the cadets apply those fundamentals learned. During the fall and spring of each school year the cadet corps participates in a field training program during the drill period. Initially, stress is placed on proficiency of the individual in such subjects as first aid, physical fitness and individual combat training. Later through instruction in combat formation, battle drill, patrolling and bivouac training. During the spring this training is culminated when the cadet corps participates in a field exercise which includes a tactical march and overnight bivouac.

Through participation in the ROTC six year Military Schools program, a cadet receives all necessary ROTC training to qualify for a Reserve Army Commission once he has attained a baccalaureate degree.

Wentworth is proud to be one of the original Honor Schools of the United States, the highest rating given by the Department of the Army.

Patriotism is no sham at Wentworth. Every cadet is taught the real meaning of our flag. Each day, with appropriate ceremonies, the Stars and Stripes are raised and lowered on the towering flag pole.
Within Wentworth's Administration Building are handsomely furnished parlors, corridors and reception rooms. Among its furnishings and decorations students and guests alike find many articles of interest and rare beauty. Its comfortable furnishings amid peaceful surroundings afford a homelike atmosphere where the new cadet readily adapts himself to a wholesome, happy experience.

Here in an atmosphere of quiet dignity, every student is privileged to entertain his guests or to spend his leisure moments as governed by his daily schedule. None of the comforts of the modern home have been excluded in Wentworth's plan to provide the finest training and quarters available.

* In this view of the main lobby of the Administration building, cadets are shown admiring a replica of the Declaration of Independence and Constitution donated to Wentworth by the late Mr. L. Fred Evans, Vice-President of Emery Bird Thayer of Kansas City.

Nature and man have joined forces at Wentworth to produce a campus of outstanding beauty. Magnificent trees, of many varieties, blend in perfect harmony with modern, attractive buildings and spacious grounds. The Academy is located just at the edge of Lexington and covers 52 acres. The front campus extends over four city blocks and is dotted with massive elms and glorious flower banks that provide enchantment and inspiration. The back campus includes athletic and military fields and the new stadium. There are ten thoroughly modern buildings on the campus, each built for the exact purpose it serves. They are of brick and stone construction and are heated by steam and hot water.
THE WENTWORTH COUNTRY CLUB

Located on one of the most beautiful spots overlooking the Missouri River, the Golf Course and Country Club add variety to the many facilities available to the Wentworth students. The nine-hole golf course is most attractive and sporty. The club house, with its catering equipment, is ideal for many informal parties held throughout the year. And in the stable are found horses suitable for the tyro as well as the expert rider.
Wentworth's up-to-date Sellers-Wixoff Scholastic Building is the nucleus of the scholastic department. This magnificent structure contains one of the most splendid libraries possessed by any institution of this kind. Four completely equipped laboratories provide excellent facilities for the practical study of the sciences. In addition to classrooms for all classes, it houses the Dean's and Commandant's offices. It is with justifiable pride that Wentworth points to this new achievement in its effort to provide surroundings which are conducive to academic advancement.

* One of the spacious, well lighted and immaculate corridors in the Sellers-Wixoff Scholastic Building.

The attractive library contains thousands of volumes, providing every necessary supplement to the student's texts and manuals.

* Visual Aids are being used to a great extent to supplement lectures by instructors. The Academy has the best equipment available and has established a liberal budget for rental of motion pictures for class work.
The scholastic department is divided into two separate and distinct units: the high school, which offers four years of preparatory work, and the junior college, which offers two years of liberal arts and science. Each has its own organization separate from the other. Both divisions are fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, an organization composed of the leading colleges and preparatory schools in twenty states. This recognition means that graduates of either department are eligible to enter any institution in the United States that receives students by certification.

It is our aim to see that each cadet masters every lesson thoroughly. To accomplish this, every student is taught correct study methods and thoroughly schooled in correct uses of libraries and laboratories. Classes are small, which permits individual attention. Most of the faculty members live in the buildings with students. They are readily accessible for special help. From time to time a personal study is made of each cadet to determine his points of weakness and help him overcome them.
A valuable addition to the Wentworth campus is Sandford Sellers, Sr. Hall, a three-quarter million dollar air-conditioned junior college dormitory and kitchen and dining hall wing.

The building is named after the late Col. Sandford Sellers, Sr., president of Wentworth for 52 years. He was the father of Wentworth's present president, Col. James M. Sellers.
SR. HALL

The three-level building of stone and brick construction houses 124 cadets and three faculty supervisors, and also includes lounge, recreation and meeting rooms.

The dining hall section, also air-conditioned, has a seating capacity for 670 persons. The kitchen is spacious and modern in every respect and its equipment compares with that found in the kitchens of the country's leading hotels.
Our new Field House is a beautiful $1,000,000.00 structure containing some 65,000 square feet of space. The main floor contains three large regulation basketball courts; a six-lane indoor grass-tex track with a 75 yard straightaway, pole vault and jumping pit; two large varsity locker rooms with drying facilities, a weight room, training room with therapy...

machines, equipment room and handball court. On the second floor there is a wrestling room to accommodate two 24 x 24 mats, gymnastic room, equipped with parallel and horizontal bars, horses, trampoline, rings and other apparatus; golf and tennis room, and shuffle board courts. It also includes a very beautiful Olympic size swimming pool, colorful and up-to-date in every way.
Wentworth participated in the Federal Aviation Agency Civilian Pilot Training Program from its inception in 1939 through the change to War Training Service until June, 1943, when all but 80 out of 712 colleges and universities throughout the country were eliminated due to curtailment of this type of training. However, the academy administration, believing aviation training to be very important now and in the future to the youth of the nation, secured permission from F.A.A. officials to continue flight training on a civilian basis and at the expense of the trainee.

Wentworth operates in conjunction with the ADD Aerial Service at the Lexington Airport as a certified flying school fully approved by the F.A.A. The flight training program, including ground school, far surpasses the minimum requirements set forth by the Federal Aviation Agency qualifying cadets for Private and Commercial Pilot Certificates. It consists of instruction in both dual and solo flight time.

The records of the graduates of the Wentworth Flight Training are outstanding. During the war, the graduates of this training program fought on every front where Americans were in combat.

NOTWO days at Wentworth are quite the same, for a widely varied program of scholastic, military, athletic and other activities is used to keep the interest of the cadets at high pitch and their appetites for learning well whetted. Furthermore, no two students have quite the same duties to perform throughout any given day. There is, however, a definite routine that all cadets follow each day. It is used to instill perfect regularity and promptness in attendance upon all duties prescribed for one and all cadets alike.

While it requires some adjustments for new students to become accustomed to this routine, any slight hint of monotony is soon lost in the kaleidoscopic whirl of the school year.

To give parents and others a better insight, the following pages have been used to set forth, pictorially, the day's activities from Reveille to Taps, of a typical Wentworth boy whom we will designate as Cadet Harlan.
HERE is Harlan, a typical Wentworth cadet—a fine young American—manly, scholarly and upright. His respect for duty and responsibility has won for him the rank of sergeant. He may have come from a large city or a very small town—that makes no difference to the democratic spirit that prevails at Wentworth. He may be from a wealthy family or a family in meager circumstances—most of his classmates would never know, nor even be curious, unless he chose to tell them. But he typifies all the fine qualities of a deserving and ambitious youth as he goes through the tried and age-proved Wentworth process of becoming a real man, a real asset to himself, his family and friends, and society as a whole.

Harlan, like all the others, participates in many activities besides those shown. But let's follow him through a typical day.

*Harlan "Butch" Helflinge, who graduated in the class of '36 and posed as the model cadet in the yearbook, served as a Major in the last war and is presently a retired army officer in the state of California.
His brothers, Hugo and Arthur, also attended Wentworth. Hugo, a Major, served with distinction with the Rangers. Arthur served with the Navy Air Corps as an Ensign and presently teaches school in Missouri.
Harlan's first duty is a thorough, refreshing wash before breakfast.

"I can't get 'em up," blows the bugler, but he does, and at 6:35 o'clock another day is under way. Cadet Harlan goes first to the sanitary lavatory on his floor. A good washup is part of the routine, for a cadet is expected to keep himself clean at all times. At 6:50 he goes to a well-prepared breakfast.

After breakfast, rooms must be cleaned. One of the basic aims of our system is to form personal habits of order. Each morning Harlan makes his own bed, puts his clothes in order and helps his roommate clean the room.
Strict inspection of quarters is a daily routine. Formal inspection of Harlan's person, room, and equipment occurs on Sunday morning. At this time unusual care must be taken in cleaning the room. Our friend sees that hidden corners are carefully dusted, chairs polished, and everything put in order. Then he takes care of his person. There's brass to shine, leather to polish, hair to brush, and whiskers to be removed. A certain time is allotted for this preparation and all work must be done within that time. This young fellow knows that any deficiency in this work receives what is known in Academy language as a "skin"—which counts against one's company in color competition.

Harlan is ready for the inspector—brass gleaming, shoes shined—room as clean as the proverbial "hound's tooth."
At 8 O’CLOCK in the morning, classes convene. Harlan makes his way to a small class on his schedule where personal attention is his at any time it is needed. Our cadet is carefully instructed in the handling of delicate scientific equipment. He is not forced to grope blindly for information. That which is true of the science laboratories is equally true in all other classrooms.

Time passes rapidly in the classroom or laboratory because the work is interesting. The scholastic day is divided into two equal parts, with four classes in the morning and two in the afternoon.
Our Cadet goes through a course of calisthenics to promote grace and health. All the cadets shown in the picture were in the Armed Service.

Calisthenics play an important role in the physical education of Cadet Halton. No effort is made to indulge in this or any other exercise in the early morning hours when the body is at its lowest ebb. All such exercises are taken by our cadet after a hearty breakfast and morning classes. The exercises are intended to promote graceful movement as well as better health. The calisthenics used by the United States Army are followed. They are led by senior cadet officers.

So long as the weather permits, the calisthenics are held in the open, but they are taken in the large gymnasium, where an entire battalion may take part at the same time, when rain or cold is in the air.

The ten excellent tennis courts are always popular.
Drill is a very formal affair. It is on the drill field that Harlan learns much of courtesy, discipline and alertness. He, with his entire battalion, is thoroughly schooled in good citizenship, taught the proper respect for superiors and trained in leadership.

Learning to drill a squad is the first training in leadership. Throughout the year squad drill and competition is a part of the regular military routine. The squad is the smallest military unit and consists of nine to twelve men, two of whom are sergeants. All instruction is conducted by cadets under the personal supervision of members of the military faculty.

Although military work takes but one hour each day, the training is intensive and much more thorough than that found in larger units. Personal attention is given the individual cadet on the military field as well as in the classroom, and each cadet has an equal chance to advance to important positions in Wentworth's military realm. In the army, the navy and the marine corps Wentworth is glorified by its alumni who have received their commissions and are distinguishing themselves in official capacities of these respective branches of service.
Like many other cadets, Harlan finds the extended order drill more interesting. This drill consists of combat methods. He is taught to make use of cover, to advance and to fire. No actual firing is done during this drill, however, for all the ammunition used is dummy material. Initiative and leadership are required in this work. Situations arising in the problems furnished by the Department of the Army call for quick thinking and immediate action.

Here our typical cadet finds extended order drill interesting and instructive.

The Cadet Officer using the field glasses was Captain Woodrow Wylie, U. S. Army, who participated in the fight on Bataan.
The cadet about to insert the cartridge in his rifle is Lieut.-Colonel Milton Moran, U. S. Marine Air Corps. He participated in considerable action in the South Pacific.
Eating— an always-popular "sport" with Harlan and his fellow cadets! Meal time is always a time for good food and good fellowship.

The Faculty Officer at the head of the table is Major Robert D. Hepler, assistant dean. The lady is his wife, Mrs. Beth Hepler, the academy's hostess and social director.

Following the morning classes comes lunch time and our cadet is ready to eat. Academy menus are always varied and pleasing. Meals are carefully planned to suit the needs of all cadets. They are healthful and nutritious and just what active, hard-working boys require. Meal times are at 7:00 in the morning, 12:10 and 6:10. This schedule is varied only on Sunday, when dinner becomes a more elaborate meal served at 12:30.

After dinner there is a recreation period during which Harlan and other cadets may do pretty much as they choose. The recreation room is a popular place at this time.
Harlan is "behind the 8-ball" here! Like all other cadets, he takes part in zestful competition in the recreation rooms.

Radio Club at work in a room set aside for their private use in the student union facility.

A moment of relaxation in the recreation room adjacent to the soda fountain in the lower level of the student union.

The recreation room proves a haven of rest, relaxation and zestful indoor competition. Pool, billiard and ping-pong tables are provided. A few try their hand at bridge, while others read or relax in comfortable chairs.
CADET HARLAN attends interesting, informative and inspirational meetings in the chapel, immediately before lunch on Wednesdays and Saturdays. These meetings are conducted by the Academy Chaplain, but are not strictly religious. Travel talks, health lectures, scientific demonstrations and short sermons, presented by outstanding speakers, are frequently on the program. The service is opened with a hymn, prayer and responsive readings, and closed with the singing of "Wentworth," the Academy song.

"Pep" meetings, preceding important athletic contests, are held in the gymnasium. These are always occasions of great fun. Students and faculty make rousing speeches. The cadet band furnishes gay, martial music and everyone anticipates the big game on the morrow. Athletic contests are important recreational events. Every cadet attends them.
While a majority of the faculty members live in the barracks with cadets, some live in residences such as this on the campus.

All shined up for Sunday inspection.

Our Cadet receives personal attention from a faculty member in the library.

In this picture, the Tactical Officer, James Simmons, graduate of Wentworth, is now a Colonel in the United States Army. He participated in the capture of Attu, Kiska, Kwajalein, Leyte, Okinawa and Occupation of Korea.

Next to him, Lieutenant Orman, paratrooper, who took part in the Sicilian campaign and the capture of Naples. On the right, Captain James L. Gist Army Aviator.

PERSONAL attention is not confined to the classroom nor to the evening study periods. Harlan and many other cadets seek assistance in the spacious Academy library. The faculty officer in charge is always ready and willing to help any student, no matter what his problem. Whatever the subject, the faculty officer is qualified to give the guidance needed.

Wentworth's library is one of the most important places on the campus. It contains more than 10,000 books on nearly every subject one could imagine. Reference books include the famous Oxford English Dictionary and many sets of encyclopedia.
In the winter months basketball comes into the spotlight. Again there are the varsity and company teams and a place for every cadet who desires to play. Home games are played in the spacious field house where there are three courts and ample space for spectators.

Wentworth is a member of the Junior College Interstate conference, an athletic association numbering seven schools as members. The Wentworth High School teams are members of the Missouri River Valley conference at this time. Almost every major and minor sport is on the Wentworth program—all played under competent coaches—and every cadet is required to participate.
A view of the west entrance to the new Student Union Building. This facility contains an informal dance floor, meeting rooms, cadet officers lounge, two recreation rooms, ham radio installation and two sound proof Combo rooms.

Ready for his daily plunge in the pool.

The sparkling, crystal-clear water of the swimming pool is inviting to cadets the year round. The pool is an official Olympic size and is the scene of frequent water sports and aquatic meets. It is the purpose to teach every cadet to swim well. The water is warmed to a healthful temperature and kept pure by efficient filtration and chemical treatment.
Harlan and his friends tune in a radio program during the recreation period immediately following the evening meal. (Note the habit of listening to the radio has not changed, but we are sure the music has a great deal.)

Just before the evening study period is the favorite tune-in time for Cadet Harlan and other radio devotees. Permission to have a radio in the room is regarded as a privilege, the abuse of which causes the student to lose this favor.

After thirty-five minutes of recreation following the supper hour, evening study is begun at 7 o'clock. Each cadet retires to his own room for a two-hour period of quiet. There is no stuffy, noisy hall in which cadets are confined. Instead, individual initiative is encouraged. Faculty officers are in constant attendance throughout the period, giving advice where it is needed and encouragement at all times.
TAPS, at which time all lights must be turned out and all cadets remain quiet, is sounded at 10 o'clock. The soft notes of the bugle call to close the activities of an eventful day and the peace of slumber envelops healthy young bodies until another dawn.

TAPS
Fades the light
And afar
Goeth day
Cometh night
And a star
Leadeth all
Speedeth all
To their rest

Quiet descends and another day is ended for our busy cadet. Sleep.... sweet, restful sleep.

WENTWORTH UNIFORMS

The Wentworth uniforms are made of the finest materials. Beautifully fitted, they are suitable for every occasion, and they include every item a cadet may need.

* The cadet full dress — the officer full dress and the cadet full dress with overcoat.

* The Fatigue uniform — and raincoat

* Athletic uniform and semi-dress without bleuse.

* Officer and cadet in the semi-dress uniform.
The purpose of this book has been to give you an accurate, but necessarily inadequate glimpse of the Wentworth Military Academy and cadet life. In order fully to appreciate the Academy, it will be necessary for you to visit the campus in person, see the beautiful grounds and buildings and meet members of the faculty. The Administration offices are open the year 'round and your visit will be welcomed at any time.

SUMMER SCHOOL—A military summer school and camp of 8 weeks duration begins in early June. Activities are divided equally between scholastic work and recreation. Instruction is on a tutorial basis and nearly any subject may be taken.

THE 83rd CORPS OF CADETS at the annual WENTWORTH SHOW in the Municipal Auditorium of Kansas City drew a crowd of 10,000 people.

INDIAN GROUP

A group of cadets who meet regularly to study Indian lore, including interpretative dancing. These cadets are shown in costumes which they personally designed and made. The Wentworth Indian group makes a number of appearances in nearby communities during the year. Personnel of the group changes frequently throughout the year.

WENTWORTH PHILHARMONIC GROUP—For over 30 years cadets have been attending the regular series of the Kansas City's Philharmonic Orchestra. This year's group is seen here with Hans Schweiger, the conductor, Mrs. Schweiger, and Cpl. and Mrs. James M. Salter. Seated is Leon Fleischer, internationally known pianist.
SPECIAL EVENTS MARKED THE 75th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF WENTWORTH

During 1954-1955

Several special events were held, some pictured here. The first of these was to recognize Founders Day and honor the memory of Stephen G. Wentworth, the founder, and Col. Sanford Sellers, the first superintendent, who served as head of the Academy for 58 years. The speaker and honored guest was ex-President Harry S. Truman, who addressed the Cadet Corps and the guests in attendance and later placed wreaths on the graves of the two men who were honored. Mr. Truman was made an Honorary Colonel of the Wentworth Cadet Corps during the visit he and his wife made to the Academy.

The second event, although an annual one, our Wentworth show in Kansas City had the distinctive 75th Anniversary color. The third special occasion was one which received nation-wide publicity, a re-enactment of the Battle of Lexington which occurred in September of 1861. Joining with the Cadet Corps in actually portraying the Battle were units from the regular Army, the National Guard, and ROTC units of Kansas City. The leading citizens of the City of Lexington, and in fact the whole community, joined in preparation for this very unusual event. As much realism as possible was achieved, even including the cooperation of the elements because it rained continuously during the day, May 12, 1955, on which this event was held, as it had during the actual Battle, according to authentic records. Attending the event were many high ranking Army officers and other distinguished citizens, which made it one of the most remarkable days in the entire history of Wentworth Military Academy and of the City of Lexington.

The Battle of Lexington rages! The re-enactment of the battle in 1955, drew many thousands of visitors here. It was also re-enacted on its 100th anniversary here when approximately 35,000 were present.

The Honor Guard, the snap drill team of Wentworth, is invited on many special occasions to appear before the public. Pictured below is Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens, accompanied by Charles C. Stephenson, civilian assistant to the Secretary in this area, as they inspect the Honor Guard at the Grandview Air Base during Armed Forces Day, May 21, 1955.
An outstanding addition to the facilities of Wentworth is the new chapel used for the first time during Commencement 1953. This building was dedicated November 9, 1953. An electric organ was installed later and was used for the first time during the 1957 Commencement exercises. This building adds much to the life of Wentworth. It is used for assemblies, both religious and secular, for dramatics, and for moving pictures, both entertaining and educational, as part of our audiovisual program.
CADET MEMORIES 1969-70

September 1 — Today I returned from summer vacation. It's great to see all my old friends from last year. We had a meeting with the department head and there were announcements of promotions. It looks like we are in for a good year.

September 2 — The band members started coming in for band camp. From the looks of their hair I think all of them have been playing in a rock and roll group all summer. Today, there were a lot of meetings and other activities so, by taps, I was ready to check in.

September 3 — First call sure does come early around here but I guess I'll get used to it after awhile. The college football players enrolled most of the morning and they had practice this afternoon. Some of the band players got butcheted by Jay this afternoon but it could be worse.

September 4 — Half of the new boys reported today with the remaining new boys to come in tomorrow. As I look at some of the newcomers, I can't help but feel sorry for the new officers because they have a big job ahead of them. There was open post tonight but most of us stayed in the barracks and worked on our rooms. I had to clean up our room because my roommate called his girl and he spent about two hours on the phone and then called his parents and talked with them.

September 5 — The last of the new boys arrived this morning so all of them will be marching this afternoon. The high school football teams practiced this afternoon. There is only one word to describe Patterson's boys, Fast.

September 6 — The Old Boys arrived this morning so everyone should be here now. Those new boys are really getting the workout today. This morning they drilled and attended chapel. This afternoon they had room inspection and more drill. The band practiced their snap drill. Tonight the old boys get their first of many lectures with the department heads. The new boys went to a free show downtown. Taps was at 10:05.

September 7 — Optional breakfast but drill was mandatory. Some of us attended church for the first time. This afternoon the new high school cadets had a test with Major Coulter. Col. Perry had a meeting with the old boys; he showed some movie posters. The dean met with the new boys in the chapel this afternoon. I can't wait until classes start so we can get on a regular schedule.

September 8 — The first laundry turn-in of the year. All of the teaching faculty had a meeting in the chapel. We had short classes this morning and two classes this afternoon. I don't believe it — homework already. Soccer practice today and the assistant coach wore his flour- eded shorts to practice.

September 9 — We turned in our luggage and civilian clothing this morning and I think some of the guys were going to cry. Tonight, the high school team will practice under their lights in the stadium for the first time.

September 10 — Today, we had our first assembly with the annual "Welcome Back" by the department heads. Classes are starting to shape up. It sure is hard to get used to studying after a summer of fun and relaxation.

September 11 — Late BRC as usual. Breakfast formation is one hour later. It takes the boredom out of the week. I think my room is finally shaped up. The studies are coming along but it's a slow process.

September 12 — I had five classes today and soccer practice was a little rougher than usual to this has been a really good day. Tonight, I think I will go to the football stadium and watch the game with Liberty vs Lexington.

September 13 — Today is Saturday and no classes for me so I thought I would go back to bed but I had a meeting and had to clean up my room. The high school team played MMA and beat them. It sure feels good to start the year off with a win.

September 14 — We had a practice parade today and the corps looked good for the first time but there is a lot of room for improvement.

September 15 — Had to turn in laundry for the first time. It rained and we were scheduled to play Park College tomorrow but they cancelled it until tomorrow. We went ahead and had practice out in the rain because we needed the experience.

September 16 — Today we played Park College there and it felt good to get away from the campus for a while.

September 17 — Wednesday — and I only have two classes; but drill in the afternoon makes up for the ones we miss. There was no assembly so we studied instead. Try-outs for positions started too and it looks like rank is going to be hard to get this year.

September 18 — We had Processing Day with physicals held in the field house this morning. I think I grew another inch. We also got our overcoats before lunch; at least we will have something to keep us warm this winter even if it isn't our girl. We had two hours of classes after dinner.

September 19 — This morning the soccer team left for Springfield, Mo. to play Evangel College in the afternoon. Tonight, the high school football team played Higginsville losing to them. This seems to be one of those bad days for the athletic department.

September 20 — The band went to the Gladstone Shopping Center in Gladstone, Mo., this morning. The band looks sharp and sounds great.

September 21 — I slept late this morning then went to church. We had chicken for lunch and later formed for inspection following the meal. The rooms have really shaped up since the first of the year. We had our first graded parade; there were a lot of points taken off. The DMS awards were given.

September 22 — I had to get up early this morning to turn in my laundry. That sure is a wonderful way to start off the week. The high school team played Higginsville here. Classes are getting rougher all the time but I guess that's good.

September 23 — This is a day everyone has been waiting for because we get our flu shots. I didn't have to get one because the soccer team played Westminster College here. We won the game.

September 24 — This morning we met with our faculty advisors during assembly period. Also today, I taught my first class during drill. I hope they learned something because I sure put enough time into it.

September 25 — Late BRC was great today because I stayed up last night and studied for geology. The faculty had their pictures taken today for the new catalogue. I called up my girl to see if she was going to come down for the dance Saturday.

September 26 — I had a test in neurology this morning. I hope I did all right on it. The college team played Missouri Valley here and the high school played Slater, Mo., there. I think we should have marked this day off the calendar because I lost both games.

September 27 — This morning, I slept through breakfast because I was on OC duty last night. About 10 o'clock I went down to pick up my girl and then went back to bed for a couple of hours. Parade looked good but there were a few minor mistakes.

September 28 — Parade results came out this morning and I was shocked but that's the way the old wheel spins. This afternoon following soccer practice, I watched the Honor Guard; they are what I call sharp.

September 30 — I had a commander's meeting this morning so that just about planned the rest of my day. It seems like the month went by pretty fast.

October 1 — We had assembly fourth hour. King and Zerita put on an E.S.P. performance. I must admit they were convincing. This afternoon, the soccer team went to Ottawa University in Kansas. We lost but they were really good. It was late when we got in, so we slept through breakfast.

October 2 — We had late BRC. We played William Jewell Freshmen here and won. We had a pep assembly before the game but it wasn't very fired up.
October 3 — Our high school football team played Richmond high school here. We lost but we put up a good fight. I took an MS test and thinned out that block of instructions for the six-week period.

October 4 — A group of us went to Cotley College for a Mixer — no, a Mixer is not a drink, it’s just another name for a dance. The Phi Theta Kappa had their first movie and it was good.

October 5 — There’s just one more week before the six-weeks competition is over so all the companies put on a good show for parade today. I studied tonight because I had been doing this for a couple of days.

October 6 — Moved out early this morning for laundry turn-in again. This morning it was raining so I awoke a little quicker than usual. The “B” Team played Richmond here.

October 7 — This morning I was late to breakfast and I had two tests on top of that. I almost forgot that today was my birthday too.

October 8 — I had a history test this morning and I think I did all right. There was no assembly so the corps had a study period for which I really needed.

October 9 — Late BRC. It was a relief to sleep a little later for a change.

October 10 — The high school played Marshall here. Last year they were first in the State in Class AA so it was a rough game. The junior college left after breakfast for Fairbury, Nebr.

October 11 — Phi Theta Kappa is having a movie tonight. They are really good movies and they help support the scholarship that Phi Theta Kappa gives every year.

October 12 — Today was a normal Sunday and parade came off very good. Best squad competition was held and Headquarters won.

October 13 — This was a big day because travel reservations were set up for our Christmas furlough. This sure was encouraging since it won’t be too many weeks before we will be heading for home.

October 14 — I had classes all morning but I slept through two of them. We had a conference soccer game with Park College. They were good.

October 15 — There was no assembly but we had Friday’s fourth good instead, since we have a noted speaker coming here that day. Drill was the same — cold and windy.

October 16 — I didn’t get much accomplished today because late BRC’s throw your regular schedule off. We played Haskell Institute here and we won the game.

October 17 — We had assembly at 11 o’clock with Mr. Colin Jackson as the speaker. A member of the House of Commons in England, he is quite an interesting person. The high school team went to Excelsior Springs for a game where the Wentworth Band also performed before the game.

October 18 — The band departed this morning for the American Royal parade in Kansas City. I watched them on TV and they really looked sharp. In the afternoon they will perform their snap drill at the American Royal show.

October 19 — At last the day when all company commanders await the presentation of the first six-weeks ribbon competition. The corps looked sharp and there were quite a few parents and friends present.

October 20 — It was cold and laundry formation was a good way to wake up. I called home after breakfast to wish my mother a happy birthday. The Excelsior Springs B-team played our second string here in the afternoon.

October 21 — Military Schools department heads met here today for a meeting. Dancing Classes started tonight and I was chosen to be an instructor. I am glad these classes are only once a week.

October 22 — We had to wear greens to assembly to receive Honor Society awards. The department heads made various announcements regarding Dad’s Day week end, that is coming up. We played Ottawa soccer team here.

October 23 — Late BRC. The band is going to perform in Kansas City at the American Royal. I wrote to my girl.

October 24 — My dad came down early this morning for a meeting with the dads club members. Career Day activities began following lunch. I went to business and military. I think I will stick with business. Tonight we will play for the town championship. The high school plays Lexington here. There has been a lot of injuries on the team so I don’t look for us to win.

October 25 — Dad’s Day. The dads had a meeting in the chapel following the services held there. This afternoon we drilled our dads and then we went to classes with them for two hours. The J.C. football team went to Kemper and we won. Tonight, we will have a banquet in the field house.

October 26 — The time change was made last night so I got to sleep another hour. The band performed before parade.

October 27 — Mrs. Hugh says “Mondays are unAmerican” and I am beginning to agree with her. The Lexington “B” team plays our team here. We had a short soccer practice. I didn’t go to supper because I had to study for a test tomorrow.

October 28 — I had two tests today. We left about 4:30 to go to Warrensburg for a soccer game. We lost but they were out of our class. When I got back, I had dancing classes.

October 29 — We had the usual assembly with announcements. This is the 28th consecutive day in a row that I haven’t got any mail. I guess nobody loves me anymore.

October 30 — “Late BRC at us”. The Indians went to Independence, Mo., for the annual Halloween parade there. I’ll bet they fit in real good.

October 31 — Happy Halloween! Tonight, the high school team plays Carrollton so I guess we can’t go out on “trick or treat” tonight.

November 1 — Doctor Campbell had a real fired up chapel this afternoon. The Carrollton “B” team played here. The Pirtles had a Halloween party for some of us. Steve Craig and Lyle Burr received the ‘booby’ prizes. Phil went to Kansas City on a doctor’s appointment.

November 2 — Parade — well, isn’t this enough for Sunday.

November 3 — Marshall high school here tonight. My grades are going to really go down if I don’t get to work.

November 4 — People from four military schools met here today for their annual meeting.

November 5 — Kansas City mothers came down for lunch with their sons. My mother didn’t come because I had to teach a class for drill.

November 6 — “Late BRC as usual”. It is starting to get very cold outside, especially during the morning.

November 7 — I will go to Kemper today to help set things up for Homecoming this year. Major Ensign missed the turnout coming back to Lexington but I really think he wanted to check out a couple of hunting spots down the road.

November 8 — The J.C. Red Dragons go to Haskell in Lawrence for their football game with them. Phi Theta Kappa had a show in the chapel.

November 9 — Ribbon Day at parade today. Headquarters walked away with two of them but charging “Charlie” bought for the third one.

November 10 — Today I started getting in shape for basketball. It looks like the competition is going to be tough this year. I think the high school team is going to have a rough time this year.

November 11 — Veterans’ Day. The band traveled to Chillicothe to perform. I had lab in neurology for two hours. My waiter gave me an extra dessert at lunch.

November 12 — The companies are starting working on their floats for Homecoming. I'll bet Delta Company wins because Lyle Burr already has ‘divers’ from it. All the company commanders and Executive Officers were given briefings on our trip to Kemper.

November 13 — Late BRC. We had a regular schedule but SRC was early. After supper, we had a pep rally. The coaches and team captains spoke briefly to the corps. Colonel Willoughby gave his very moving annual speech during the bonfire and sacrificial offerings by the com-company commanders. Following this, I went on to dancing class where I found very attractive young ladies invited by Mrs. Maring, to assist us in our dancing.

November 14 — This morning, I arose about 9:30 to shower and put on my blues because today we are going to Boonville to "Beat Kemper." I don't think it has ever been as cold before but it was worth it — to beat Kemper. We got back about 6:30, ate and then worked on our floats. I don't believe I have ever before seen the school spirit so high as now.

November 15 — Homecoming Day. We had a parade about one o'clock in downtown Lexington, then we returned to the stadium where we again beat Kemper. Our dance in the field house that evening was very enjoyable.

November 16 — Sunday was the same as usual. Following parade, I spent the rest of the time studying and relaxing.

November 17 — Mondays after big week ends are always the worst ones. Basketball starts today. There sure are a lot of guys out for it but the trouble is that most of them are fairly good. I hope I make the team. Some players from the Cardinals baseball team talked to us at assembly fourth hour.

November 18 — Flu Shots after lunch. My arm hurts already and it isn't even 10:00 a.m. I am glad this is the last one for the year.

November 19 — No assembly. We made up the fourth period class that we missed Monday. We had a drill holiday.

November 20 — All my tests were rough but I think I did okay on them. I went on furlough with John.

November 22 — Didn't do much on furlough. We just messed around. I guess the Phi Theta Kappa is having a show tonight.

November 23 — Four of us went to the Chiefs-Oakland game; it was a real heart-breaker. We came back to school about 3:00.

November 24 — Like I said before, Monday mornings are rough after those big week ends. I had a lot of work to do on the books too.

November 25 — Tuesday always brings money but it also is the start of a new haircut week.

November 26 — We had the regular Wednesday drill. I am on the battle drill committee. Battle drill is the study and practice of squad formation in battle.

November 27 — Thanksgiving Day. We had classes in the morning. My roommate came home with me. We watched football most of the day.

November 28 — I made the team and ten of us are going to Trenton tomorrow. It will probably be late when we get back.

November 29 — Last night we won by two points, so we are going back tonight to play off for first place. We lost but we got 2nd place.

November 30 — The Sabbath — a day of rest e and that is exactly what I did most of the day.

December 1 — Time is beginning to speed up with furlough only 18 days away. The MRVC pre-season tournament starts tonight. I don't think the conference is as tough as it was last year.

December 2 — Tonight Wentworth plays Lexington in the tournament. My roommate is going with a Lexington girl so he didn't do much cheering for the home team.

December 3 — Fourth hour we had assembly. Mr. Robert Edgar had a program on "Man to the Moon." After taking it I wish I could have missed it again today.

December 4 — Late BRC. Our wrestling team went to Springfield to meet with Evangel College.

December 5 — MRVC tournament reconvened. Phil came down and we talked about school.
